WHO WE ARE

Reliable, Smart, & Easy. A global service combined with extensive local knowledge is the key to efficient and profitable operations throughout the continent.

WHAT WE DO

Your Name, Our Terrain. PrimeAir customizes regional front-line services for airlines and other enterprises from across the globe, including sales and marketing, cargo/product handling, ground operations, and accounting.

PART OF SOMETHING BIG

We've Got Connections. Customers benefit by our standing as one of multiple interconnected companies of Prime Group, a U.S.-based logistics firm with dedicated cargo management representatives, offices, and warehousing worldwide.

ABOUT US

Since 2001, PrimeAir has provided world-class GSSA services in Latin America, while serving to fortify the presence of multiple air cargo enterprises operating in the region including industry giants Atlas Air and Emirates SkyCargo. As a top-tier supplier of dependable, long-term contract services, PrimeAir delivers optimal sales and marketing, cargo handling, ground operations, and accounting services for multiple companies working throughout The Americas.

PrimeAir has institutional knowledge of the people, the policies, and the proven “tricks of the trade” in every local market. A global service combined with extensive local knowledge is the key to efficient and profitable operations throughout the continent.

Customers benefit by our standing as one of multiple interconnected companies operating under the umbrella of Prime Group, a U.S.-based logistics firm with dedicated cargo representatives, offices, and warehousing worldwide.

Located in one of the world’s busiest cargo gateways, PrimeAir’s Miami headquarters is a perfect point of contact for airlines from all across the world, and a convenient hub for information. Our Ecuador and Colombia offices closely supervise the action on the ground throughout Latin America and have decades of experience handling sensitive perishables that make up a significant portion of the market.

With myriad specialty skills including international certifications for reception and dispatch of aircraft, and airport and cargo security management, the PrimeAir team also boasts a thorough knowledge of international customs and trade rules – all to ensure that every customer’s in-country operation is managed efficiently, professionally, and profitably.
